

Checklist:

Own Your Career

1. Take CHARGE of your career

- ☐ I have defined what I want from my career.
- ☐ I am not waiting for my manager to drive my growth.
- ☐ I regularly communicate my goals and interests.
- ☐ I look for opportunities to grow, learn, and improve.
- ☐ I create chances for others to give me feedback.

2. Be seen as someone who GETS THINGS DONE

- ☐ I finish the work I commit to.
- ☐ I deliver work of high quality and at a fast pace.
- ☐ I focus on impactful work, not just busy work.
- ☐ I understand my team's and business's priorities.
- ☐ I make sure my manager and team know when I complete important work.
- ☐ I share measurable impact when possible.

3. Keep a work LOG

- ☐ I record important work each week.
- ☐ I track projects, decisions, code reviews, design docs, meetings, and support work.
- ☐ I note links to tickets, documents, pull requests, or artifacts.
- ☐ I capture work that may be useful for performance reviews or promotions.
- ☐ I review my log regularly with my manager.
- ☐ I use my log to decide what to prioritize, stop, or say “no” to.

4. ASK for feedback

- ☐ I ask for feedback on specific work, not vague personal feedback.

- ☐ I seek feedback from teammates, managers, product partners, and others I work with.
- ☐ I ask what went well and what could be improved.
- ☐ I clarify vague feedback with concrete examples.
- ☐ I ask about the impact of my actions.
- ☐ I use feedback to adjust my behavior or approach.

5. GIVE feedback to others

- ☐ I call out good work when I see it.
- ☐ I give specific positive feedback.
- ☐ I only give praise when I genuinely mean it.
- ☐ I focus critical feedback on situations, observations, and impact.
- ☐ I avoid making feedback sound like an order unless I am responsible for managing that person.
- ☐ I give constructive feedback in person or by video when appropriate.
- ☐ I make it clear that my feedback is my observation, not an absolute truth.
- ☐ I end feedback conversations positively.

6. Make YOUR MANAGER an ally

- ☐ I have regular 1:1s with my manager.
- ☐ I share what I have been working on.
- ☐ I discuss my goals and growth areas.
- ☐ I understand my manager's goals and challenges.
- ☐ I deliver what I agree to do.
- ☐ I give updates early when I cannot meet a commitment.
- ☐ I build trust by being open, honest, and transparent.
- ☐ I help my manager recognize my work by making my contributions visible.
- ☐ I ask my manager for specific feedback.

7. PACE yourself

- ☐ I notice when I am stretching, executing, or coasting.
- ☐ I take on stretch work when it helps me grow.
- ☐ I avoid stretching so much that I risk burnout.
- ☐ I spend enough time executing reliably.
- ☐ I recognize when I am coasting for too long.
- ☐ I address low motivation or lack of challenge instead of ignoring it.

- ☐ I ask for support before overload becomes burnout.
- ☐ I balance growth, reliability, and recovery over the long term.
